

Orientation Week Coordinators (May - September 2026)

Orientation Week (O-Week) Coordinator Description: Will you be in Halifax over the summer? Do you have fond memories of your O-Week and want to help create a memorable experience for the next generation of first-years? Do you love planning fun events and working as a team? Apply to be an O-Week Coordinator! (3 positions available)

Responsibilities of being an O-Week Coordinator include:

- Planning O-Week from start to finish
- Working with the KSU president and other exec. over the summer for a minimum of 5 office hours a week (with generally longer hours in August and during O-Week)
- Dividing between yourselves the responsibilities for finances, logistics, and art design for the week
- Recruiting and training O-Week leaders

The three coordinators will start May 27th and finish after O-Week. They are paid an honorarium of $3000 each ($1500 in August and $1500 in September) upon completion of their duties.
